

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS – CARLSBAD, CALIFORNIA

The Military Compensation and Retirement Modernization Commission (the Commission) will conduct a town hall meeting in the vicinity of Marine Corps Base Camp Pendleton, at the Sheraton Carlsbad Resort & Spa Conference Center in Carlsbad, California, on Tuesday, March 25, 2014. The Sheraton Carlsbad Resort & Spa Conference Center is accessible to members of the general public including individuals with disabilities.

The Commission seeks the views of service members, retirees, their families and other interested parties regarding pay, retirement, health benefits and quality of life programs of the Uniformed Services.

L. 113-66, § 1095), to conduct public hearings, in this case in the form of a town hall meeting, in order to solicit comments on the modernization of the military compensation and retirement systems.

This meeting is being conducted as a part of a series of hearings the Commission is conducting across the United States. In addition to public hearings and town halls, and due to the essential need for input from the beneficiaries, the Commission is accepting and strongly encourages comments on its web site (www.mcrmc.gov). The town hall will be recorded and transcribed and placed on the Commission's website.
